Martyrdom Charges: Atheism

They think the Christians the cause of every public disaster... If the Tiber floods, if the Nile does not send its waters up over the fields, if the heavens give no rain, if there is an earthquake, if there is famine or pestilence, straightway the cry is, "Away with the Christians to the lion!"
(Tertullian, Apology, Ch 40).

The background of the slide is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the center, partially obscured by a dark horizon line. The sky above is a gradient of colors, from a deep blue at the top to a warm orange and red near the horizon. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

The Bishop from the East fittingly dies in the West, for in death he is setting from this world to rise again before God

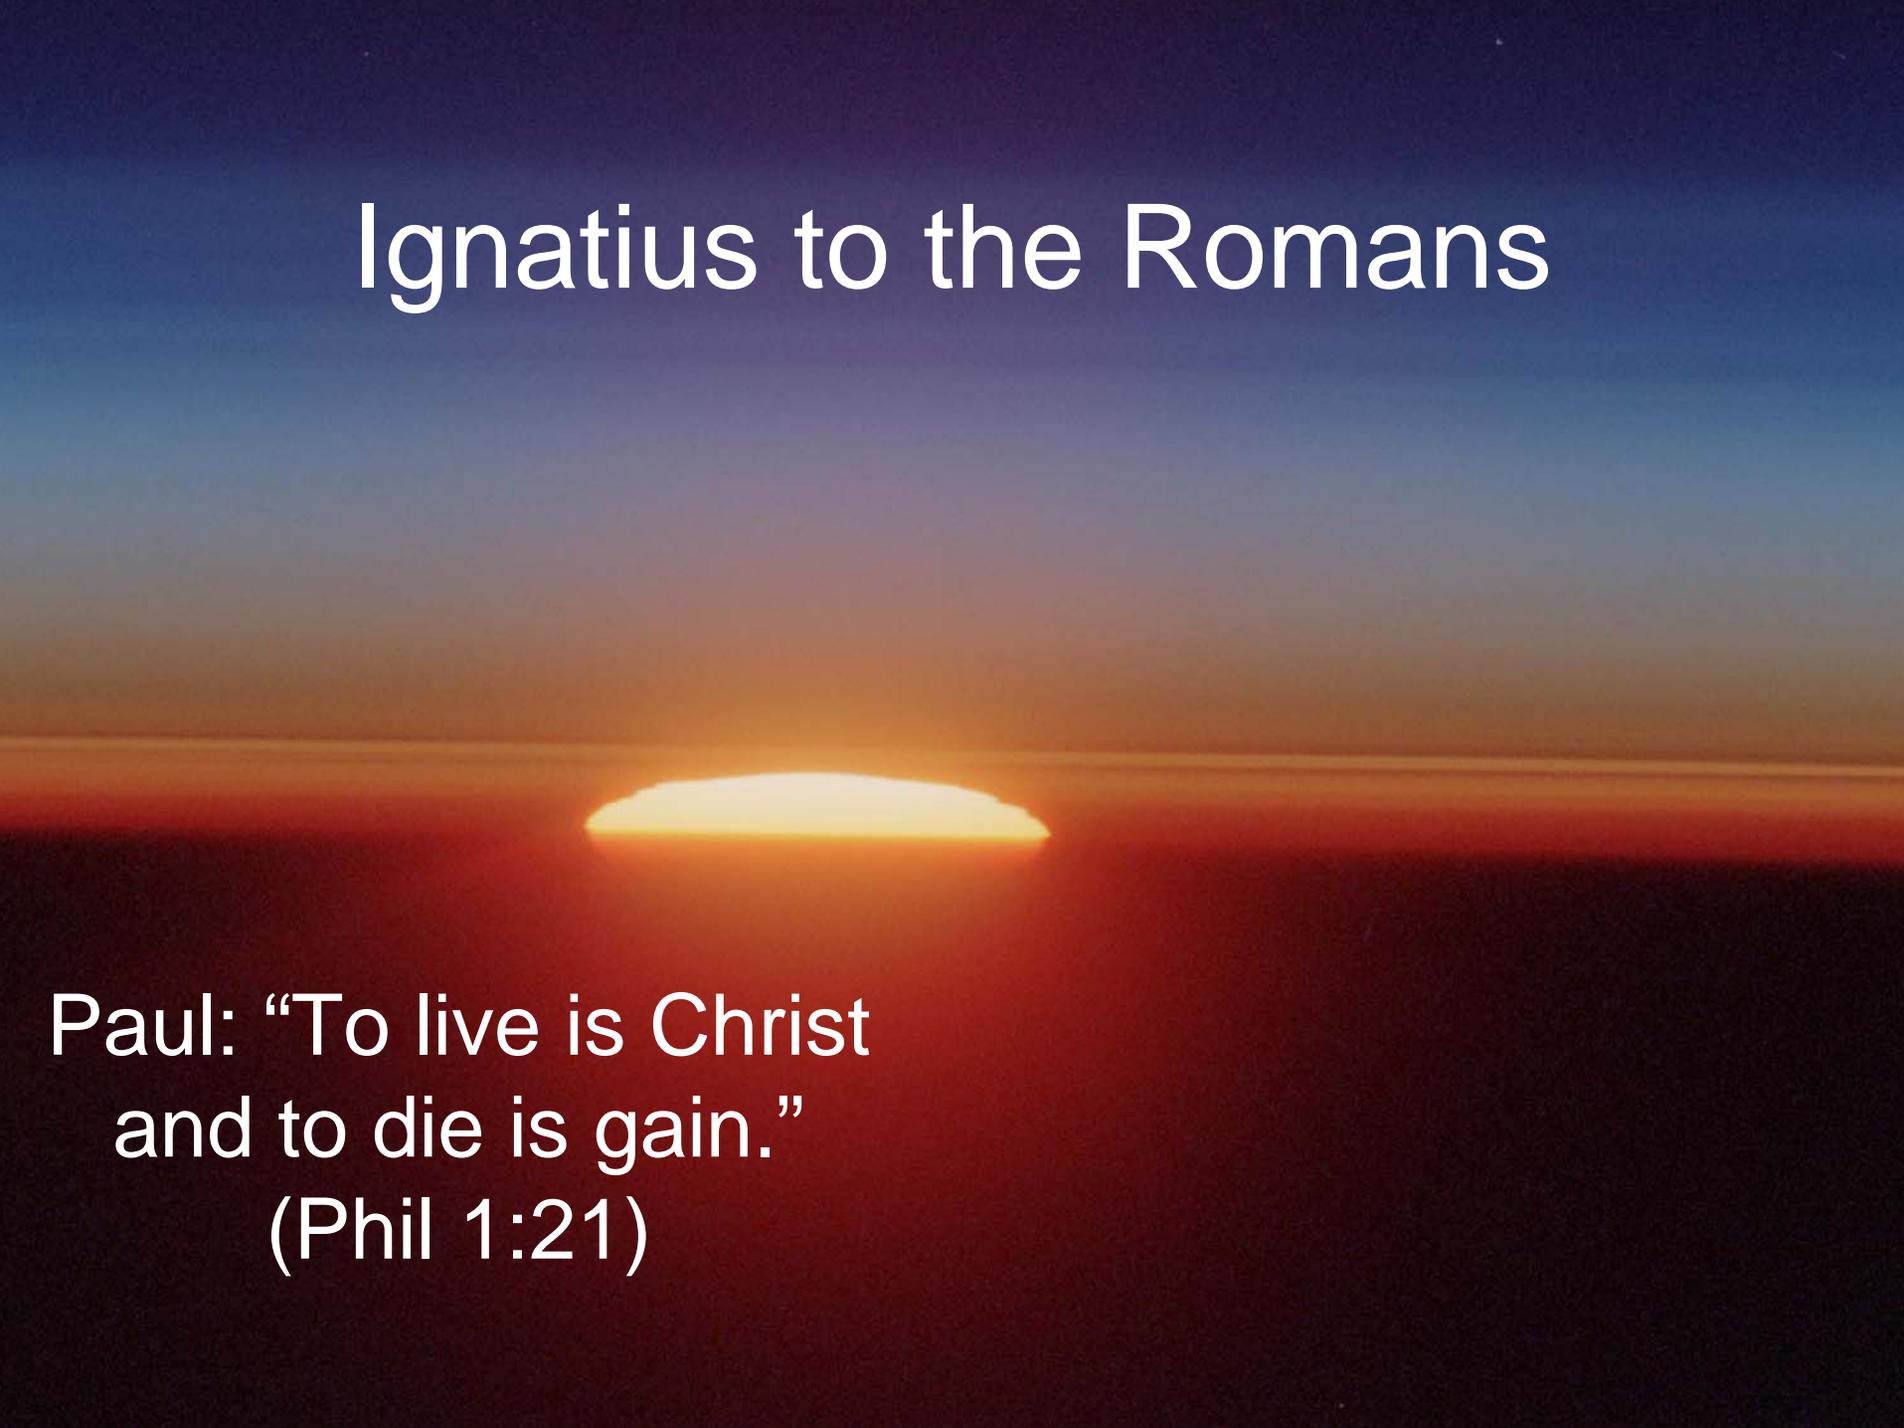

Ignatius to the Romans

“I die for God of my own free will. Let me be food for the wild beasts, through whom I can reach God. I am God’s wheat being ground by the teeth of the wild beasts.”

Ignatius to the Romans

The background of the slide is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sun is a bright, glowing orb positioned just above the horizon line, which is a dark, straight line across the middle of the image. The sky above the horizon is a gradient of colors, starting with a deep orange and red near the sun, transitioning through yellow and light blue, and finally becoming a dark, deep blue at the top of the frame.
