The 1607 Escape Problems

The 1607 Escape Problems

The background image shows a wide, calm body of water, likely a river or a large lake. In the distance, across the water, there is a shoreline with a line of trees. A prominent church steeple is visible among the trees. The sky is overcast and grey. A white vertical pole is visible on the left side of the frame, partially obscuring the view.

“Their desires were set on the ways of God and to enjoy His ordinances; but they rested on His providence, and knew Whom they had believed.”

Pastor Robinson's answer: "And David's men said unto him, See, we be afraid here in Judah, how much more if we come to Keilah against the host of ye Philistines? Then David asked counsel of the Lord again. And the Lord answered him, and said, Arise, go down to Keilah: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand." 1 Sa. 23:3-4

“All these died in faith, and received not the promises, but saw them afar off, and believed them, and received them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
For they that say such things, declare plainly, that they seek a country.”
